DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

FINAL FORECAST OF THE SUGARCANE CROP OF BENGAL, 1911.

[On an average of the five years ending 1909-10, the area under sugarcane in the territory to which this forecast relates represents about 17·1 per cent. of the total area under the crop in British India.]

Character of the Season.—Sugarcane is cultivated chiefly in Bihar. Outside Bihar it is an important crop in Burdwan, Bankura, Hazaribagh and Manbhum. The weather conditions have been generally favourable, and a good crop is expected in most districts. Some damage was done to the crop by heavy rain and floods in Murshidabad, Cuttack and in parts of Burdwan and Shahabad Area planted.—The area planted with sugarcane this year is estimated at 340,600 acres against 334,300 acres, the revised figures of last year. The normal area is reported to be 359,900 acres.

Outturn.—From the appendix attached to the report it will be seen that 6 districts report more than a normal crop, viz., Sambalpur (120 per cent.), Shahabad and Saran (117 per cent. each), Midnapore (116 per cent., 24-Parganas (109 per cent.) and Champaran (108 per cent.). Nineteen districts report a crop between 90 and 100 per cent., 3 districts between 80 and 89 per cent., and 4 districts between 70 and 79 per cent. Nadiâ alone reports a low outturn, viz., 69 per cent.

According to the estimates of the District Officers, the total outturn of the crop for the Province works out to 99 per cent. of the normal. But in view of the favourable weather conditions throughout the year, I think that the crop will be not less than 105 per cent. of the normal.

Accepting 22 cwts. as the normal rate of cane gûr per acre, the gross outturn for the Province is estimated at 7,867,900 cwts. against 7,354,600 cwts. last year.

Other sources of gûr.—The total quantity of gûr likely to be obtained from the juice of the date palm is estimated at 1,038,600 cwts. and from palmyra-palm at 13,200 cwts. The total quantity of gûr in the Province from all sources this year is therefore estimated at 9,219,700 cwts.

Ghent Universal and International Exhibition organised for 1913 under the High Patronage of His Majesty the King of the Belgians.

APPEAL TO EXHIBITORS.

Ghent, 1st October 1911.

A Universal and International Exhibition will be opened in Ghent in April 1913 and closed at the end of October of the same year.

After Brussels, Antwerp and Liege, the old Capital of Flanders in her turn means to assert her commercial and manufacturing importance by inviting the wide world's manufacturers to her intended Exhibition.

The Exhibitions of 1885 and 1894 in Antwerp, 1897 and 1910 in Brussels, 1905 in Liege all proved to be great successes ; Ghent no doubt will prove to be equal to these.

A general classification will show the following groups :—

I—Fine Arts.

II—Education.

III—Instruments and general methods connected with Letters, Sciences and Arts.

IV—Plant and general methods connected with Machinery.

V—Electricity.

VI—Civil Engineering. Means of Transport.

VII—Agriculture.

VIII—Horticulture and Arboriculture.

IX—Forests. Shooting. Hunting. Fruit gathering.

X—Articles of Food.

XI—Mines. Metallurgy.

XII—Decoration and furnishing of Public Buildings and private Houses.

XIII—Yarns, Woven Fabrics, Wearing Apparel.

XIV—Chemical Industry.

XV—Miscellaneous Industries.

XVI—Social Economy.

XVII—Public Health. Charitable Institutions.

XVIII—Practical Education. Economic Institutions. Female Handicraft.

XIX—Trade. Colonisation.

XX—Land and Sea Forces.

XXI—Sports.

XXII—Congresses and Conferences.

Grounds of about 250 acres located in the modern part of the city are set out for the Ghent World's Fair. The Beautiful Park known as the "Citadel" will be incorporated in the Exhibition grounds, the access of which will be rendered easy to visitors by the proximity of Ghent St.-Peter's station on the international line Brussels-Ostend.

Of all Belgian cities, Ghent is one of the most interesting ones from an artistic and archæological point of view. Her "Chateau des Comtes," Belfry and City-Hall, her opulent churches, the Halls of ancient Corporations, the Ruins of St-Bavon's Abbey, her Beguinages and Museums attract every year a crowd of tourists and visitors.

By the side of the city of the past, a modern city has risen as a first class manufacturing and commercial centre. The importance of her textile industry has won for her the name of "Belgian Manchester."

Her machine building enjoys a European renown. She is, too, the city of flowers or garden-city and her quinquennial flower-shows are famous in the horticultural world. Her beautiful harbour which communicates with the sea by one of the widest canals existing (the Terneuzen Canal) has an ever-increasing traffic.

All these and many other reasons will secure the enthusiastic co-operation of manufacturers both of the old and new world to the 1913 Exhibition.

Halls covering over 25 acres will be built for home and foreign industry. Textiles and metallurgy will be particularly represented. An Exhibition of ancient Arts, Fine-Arts, Liberal-Arts will attest the ever-increasing influence of Art and its applications on the people's existence.

A vast Palace of Horticulture and Fêtes, built of lasting materials, will stand in the middle of the Park incorporated in the Exhibition Grounds. It will be used for the flower-show of the "Société Royale d'Agriculture et de Botanique" and other flower-shows that will constitute one of the main attractions of the Exhibition. There, also, will take place the numerous festivities contemplated for the year 1913.

In these manifestations of the economic activity of the Belgians, Agriculture will find a place worthy of its importance.

For the first time, too, Belgium will be revealed to the world as a colonial Power. A Congo Palace will show the strenuous effort made by the Belgians in their great African empire.

Large areas shall be kept for participation of foreign countries which even now promise to be both brilliant and numerous.

Permanent and temporary competitions, congresses and conferences and artistic festivities will complete the programme of the intended Exhibition.

All kind of attractions will add to the life and picturesqueness of the Ghent World's Fair.

Special measures have been adopted as regards danger of a conflagration. To this end and notwithstanding the heavy expenses incurred by such decision the committee did not hesitate in deciding on the system of isolated pavilions and they have contracted with specialists for the establishment of the latest apparatus to prevent and oppose the kindling and extension of fire.

The Exhibition grounds will be connected to the State Railway lines.

Under patronage of the Executive Committee, a Commercial Bureau will be created and located in the Exhibition buildings.

In this Commercial Bureau will be centralized all particulars concerning industries represented, in this way powerfully aiding to the development of commercial or business connections among the countries participating in the Ghent Exhibition.

National commodities will travel both ways free of charge on the State Railway lines, foreign goods forwarded to the Exhibition will enjoy a temporary exemption of duty on condition they are re-exported.

General rules, the classification of goods and conditions of admission have been decreed.

The principle of division into national compartments, i.e., the grouping of products of a same country, together with a system of general classification, has been adopted.

The charges made for plots will include all charges for general decoration and management so that exhibitors will be enabled to calculate as nearly as possible what their participation is to cost them.

A lottery, the prizes of which are to be bought from the exhibits, will be organized under special supervision of Government.

Prizes and medals will be awarded by an international Jury appointed by the Government.

The Government has appointed a Commissioner General to act on their behalf in connection with the Executive Committee and Foreign Powers.

The Exhibition is placed under special patronage of His Majesty the King of Belgians. It is officially acknowledged by Government and Municipal authorities.

The Executive Committee warmly appeals to foreign Nations and to Belgian Exhibitors. The Ghent Exhibition must be an eloquent testimonial of the incessant progress realized by human genius.

Manufacturers and business men of the whole world—we have no doubt—will participate in large numbers to the success of the Ghent World's Fair. No concern whatever contributes like a Universal and International Exhibition to the beneficial development of exchanges and business connections among the several Nations of the world.

2. Every Inspector who receives information of the supposed existence, or who has reasonable grounds to suspect the existence, of glanders and farcy in any place within the local limits for which he is appointed, shall immediately report to the Magistrate, and shall proceed at once to such place, and there exercise and perform the powers conferred and the duties imposed upon him under the Act.

3. When any horse is diseased the owner or person in charge thereof shall—

(a) if practicable, remove the horse to some isolated building at least fifty yards from the stable, building, shed, enclosed place, open lines or other place where it has been standing, or to a remote part of the said place;

(b) keep the horse as far as possible away from other horses not diseased and from dwelling-houses; and

(c) give information of the fact of the disease, as soon as possible, to an Inspector, or if there be no Inspector at any place nearer than the nearest Police-station, to that Police-station, and the officer in charge of that station, if not himself an Inspector under the Act, shall forthwith report the same to an Inspector, and to the District Superintendent of Police.

4. (1) Whenever an Inspector has reason to believe that a diseased horse is to be found in any enclosure, field, building or other place, he shall enter such enclosure, field, building or other place, and search for and inspect such horse and all other horses (if any) therein.

(2) Every entry and inspection made by an Inspector under this rule or under section 5 of the Act shall be made in the presence of the owner or person in charge of the place, or of the owner or person in charge of the horse, or of both if they desire to attend.

(3) Before making any such entry the Inspector shall hand a written or printed notice of his intention to the owner or person in charge of the place, or to the owner or person in charge of the horse, or to both if they are present at the time of such entry, and he must also, if so required, produce his certificate of appointment.

(4) Every such certificate shall be in Form No. 1 in the Schedule hereto annexed.

(5) When making any such entry, search and inspection, the Inspector may be accompanied by any other Inspector or by any Veterinary Practitioner, or by any other person, whom he may consider it necessary to take with him.

(6) The person in charge of the place, and the owner or person in charge of the horse shall give free access to the Inspector and the persons (if any) accompanying him, and shall in every way facilitate the search and inspection.

(7) If an Inspector has reason to believe that the owner or person in charge of a horse is absenting himself in order to evade the provisions of the Act or these rules, or if he meets with resistance or obstruction in making the entry, he may nevertheless make such entry if he be accompanied by not less than two persons, appointed in writing by the Magistrate.

5. (1) Whenever an Inspector has reason to believe that any horse is diseased, he shall seize such horse and isolate it in a suitable place for the purposes of examination, for such a period, not exceeding four months, as may be deemed necessary:

Provided that such period may be shortened or extended by order of the Magistrate.

(2) The fact of such seizure and isolation shall be at once notified by the Inspector to the Magistrate, to the Superintendent and to the nearest Veterinary Practitioner, who shall give his reasons for recommending the retention of the horse and full details of the case.

6. (1) When an Inspector seizes any horse, he shall present to the owner or to the person in charge of the horse a printed copy of these rules either in English or vernacular.

(3) If the Inspector is not a Veterinary Practitioner, and if the horse is found on examination by a Veterinary Practitioner to be diseased, the Inspector shall as soon as practicable procure from such practitioner a certificate in the said form, and shall serve a copy of it on the owner or person in charge of the horse. If the owner or person in charge is absent at the time of seizure, the Inspector shall nail the said copy on a prominent place within or near the premises where the seizure took place.

7. Every animal that has been in the same field, building, or place, or in contact with a diseased horse, shall be liable to be isolated in a suitable place. A report of the transaction shall be forwarded by the Inspector to the Magistrate, to the Superintendent and to the Veterinary Practitioner.

8. If an Inspector or Veterinary Practitioner has reason to believe that the provisions of the Act will not be properly carried out in any case, such Inspector or Veterinary Practitioner may apply to the Magistrate, who may depute a constable to take charge of the diseased or in-contact horse which has been isolated for examination.

9. A certificate of a Veterinary Practitioner under section 8 of the Act that any horse is diseased shall not be valid unless it is in Form No. 2 in the Schedule hereto annexed, and has been countersigned by the Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, or by some officer deputed by him in that behalf.

10. If a Veterinary Practitioner certifies under section 8 of the Act that a horse is diseased, it shall be destroyed humanely in the presence of an Inspector, and the owner or the person in charge of the horse shall cause the carcass to be buried or burnt, in a suitable place.

13. (1) If a diseased horse dies, the owner or the person in charge of it shall, as soon as possible, and with all due care for the prevention of contagion to other horses and to human beings, cause the carcass to be taken to a suitable place, to be there burnt or buried or otherwise disposed of in the safest and most efficacious manner practicable

(2) The means of disposal to be adopted shall be decided in each case by the Inspector, and shall be recorded in writing, and the work shall be carried out under his supervision.

14. No person shall intentionally or negligently cause or permit a diseased horse to stray or to be worked, or, otherwise than in accordance with these rules, to be led or driven in a public thoroughfare, road, street, or place.

15. Whenever an Inspector issues a notice, under section 9 of the Act, to the owner or person in charge of any building, shed or other enclosed place, or open lines to have the same disinfected, such notice shall be in Form No. 3 in the Schedule hereto annexed, and the work of disinfection shall be carried out, within the time specified in such notice, in the following manner :—

(vii) Temporary stables of straw, grass or similar materials shall be pulled down and burnt, the floor being treated as in clause (iv).

No. 319.—The following telegram, dated the 4th February 1912, from His Excellency the Viceroy to His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, is published for general information :—

The Ruling Princes and Chiefs of India, on the one hand, and the non-official Members of my Legislative Council, acting on behalf of the people of British India, on the other, desire that I should forward to the Prime Minister the following message from the Princes and people of India to the people of Great Britain and Ireland. Telegrams from the leading Ruling Princes and Chiefs signifying this desire have been received, and the non-official Members of my Council have acted on the authority of public meetings held at important centres in the different Provinces, at which resolutions, expressing the sentiments embodied in the message, have been adopted.

Message begins.—The Princes and people of India desire to take the opportunity afforded by the conclusion of the Royal visit to convey to the great English nation an expression of their cordial goodwill and fellowship; also an assurance of their warm attachment to the world-wide Empire of which they form part, and with which their destinies are now indissolubly linked.

Their Imperial Majesties' visit to India, so happily conceived and so successfully completed, has produced a profound and ineffaceable impression throughout the country. Their Imperial Majesties, by their gracious demeanour, their unfailing sympathy, and their deep solicitude for the welfare of all classes, have drawn closer the bonds that unite England and India, and have deepened and intensified the traditional feeling of loyalty and devotion to the Throne and person of the Sovereign, which has always characterised the Indian people. Conscious of the many blessings which India has derived from her connection with England, the Princes and people rejoiced to tender in person their loyal and loving homage to Their Imperial Majesties. They are confident that this great and historic event marks the beginning of a new era, ensuring greater happiness, prosperity and progress to the people of India under the ægis of the Crown. Message ends.

BRITISH POSSESSIONS.

Caution when approaching British Ports.

No. 60 (first publication).—The following particulars, etc., relative to the above, issued by the British Admiralty (No. 1 of 1912), are republished :—

PART I.

CLOSING OF PORTS.

(1) My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having taken into consideration the fact that local or other circumstances may arise in which it may be necessary, on account of periodical exercises, manœuvres, or otherwise, to forbid all entrance to certain ports of the Empire, this is to give Notice that on approaching the shores of the United Kingdom, or any of the ports or localities of the British Empire, referred to in Part III of this Notice, a sharp look-out should be kept for the signals described in the following paragraph, and for the vessels mentioned in paragraph (2), Part II, of this Notice, and the distinguishing and other signals made by them. In the event of such signals being displayed, the port or locality should be approached with great caution, as it may be apprehended that obstructions may exist.

(2) If entrance to a port is prohibited, three red vertical lights by night, or three red vertical balls by day, will be exhibited in some conspicuous position, in or near to its approach, which signals will also be shown by the vessels indicated in paragraph (2), Part II, of this Notice.

If these signals are displayed, vessels must either proceed to the position marked "Examination Anchorage" on the Admiralty charts and anchor there or keep the sea.

(3) At all the ports or localities at home or abroad referred to in Part III of this Notice, search-lights are occasionally exhibited for exercise.

Instructions have been given to avoid directing moveable search-lights during practice on to vessels under way, but mariners are warned that great care should be taken to keep a sharp look-out for the signals indicated in paragraph (2) above, when search-lights are observed to be working.

PART II.

Examination Service.

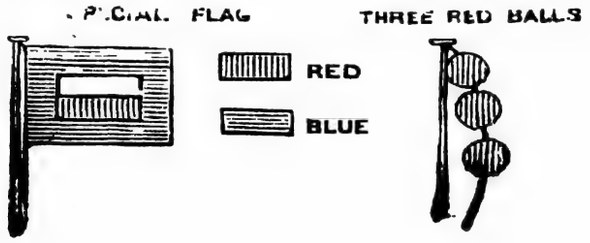
(1) Under certain circumstances it may become necessary to take special measures to examine vessels desiring to enter the ports or localities at home or abroad, referred to in Part III of this Notice.

(2) In such case, vessels carrying the distinguishing flags or lights mentioned in paragraph (4) will be charged with the duty of examining ships which desire to enter the ports and of allotting positions in which they shall anchor.

(3) As the institution of the Examination Service at any port will never be publicly advertised, especial care should be taken in approaching the ports, by day or night, to keep a sharp look-out for any vessel carrying the flags or lights mentioned in paragraph (4), and to be ready to "bring to" at once when hailed by her or warned by the firing of a gun or sound rocket.

(4) By day the distinguishing flags of the Examination Steamer will be a special flag (white and red horizontal surrounded by a blue border) and a blue ensign.

Also, three red vertical balls if the port is closed.



By night the steamer will carry—

(a) Three red vertical lights if the port is closed.
(b) Three white vertical lights if the port is open.

The above lights will be carried in addition to the ordinary navigation lights, and will show an unbroken light around the horizon.

(5) Masters are warned that, before attempting to enter any of these ports when the Examination Service is in force, they must in their own interests strictly obey all instructions as to entry given to them by the Examination Steamer. In the absence of any instructions from the Examination Steamer they must proceed to the position marked "Examination Anchorage" on the Admiralty Charts and anchor there, or keep the sea.

(6) In case of fog, Masters of vessels are enjoined to use the utmost care, and the Examination Anchorage itself should be approached with caution.

(7) The pilots attached to the ports will be acquainted with the regulations to be followed.

ADMIRALTY PUBLICATIONS.

True bearings to be introduced.*

No. 61 (first publication).—The following particulars, etc., relative to the above, issued by the British Admiralty (No. 2 of 1912), are republished:—

Notice is hereby given that, on and after the date of this Notice, TRUE bearings will be introduced as soon as practicable in all Admiralty Publications.

Details of the new system are as follows:—

(a) On charts:

A new pattern compass is already being gradually introduced which enables True Bearings to be laid off on the chart in addition to Magnetic Bearings as at present. (See diagram overleaf.)

The compass consists of two graduated circles, clearly separated from each other.

The outer circle is a True compass, graduated from 0° (True North) to 360°, measured clockwise.

The inner circle is a Magnetic compass, graduated in points and in degrees from 0° to 90° as heretofore.

The bearings of leading and clearing marks, etc., will be given both True and Magnetic, and a note to this effect will be placed in the title of the charts. (See overleaf.)

Example.—The bearing S. 40° W. true, with a Variation of 12° Easterly, will be shown thus: 220° (S. 28° W. Mag.)

(b) In Sailing Directions:

Bearings will be given as True only, in degrees from 0° (North) to 360°, measured clockwise; and a note to this effect will be given in the Title-page, in the Advertisement, and in the page immediately preceding page 1 of all volumes of Sailing Directions. The variation will continue to be given on each page as at present, so that Magnetic bearings may be obtained when required.

This alteration will be introduced gradually.

(c) In Notices to Mariners:

All bearings will be given both True and Magnetic in a similar manner to that adopted on charts, the necessary alteration having been now made in the heading of the Notices.

(d) Lists of Lights:

Bearings will be given as True only, in degrees from 0° (North) to 360°, measured clockwise.

On each page of the Lists of Lights in which this alteration has been carried out, a footnote will be placed stating that all bearings are TRUE FROM SEAWARD.

THIRD AND FINAL FORECAST OF THE WINTER RICE CROP OF BENGAL, 1911.

[On an average of five years ending 1909-10, the area under winter rice in the territory to which the forecast relates represents about 26·5 per cent. of the total area under winter rice in British India.]

Character of the season.—The monsoon arrived a few days before the normal date, but the advance was of a temporary nature. In June the rainfall was slightly defective in several districts of Lower Bengal, but it was generally above the average in the rest of the Province. The rainfall in July was insufficient in many districts and transplantation was delayed in consequence. In the early part of August there was good and sufficient rain in most districts and satisfactory progress was made in the work of transplantation. The rainfall in September and October did much good to the crop at the time of its maturity.

Area sown.—The total area sown with the crop is now returned at 19,954,900 acres, against 20,947,400 acres last year. The normal area under the crop is estimated to be 19,916,600 acres. The decrease in the area sown this year is due to want of sufficient rain at the time of transplantation.

Outturn.—In Midnapore, Hooghly, Nadia, Patna, Saran, Champaran, Muzaffarpur, the Sonthal Parganas and Manbhum a better crop has been harvested than was expected when the second forecast was issued in December, but in the 24-Parganas, Monghyr, Cuttack, Hazaribagh and Singhbhum the outturn is estimated somewhat below the previous estimate. In the remaining districts the estimate is unchanged. From Appendix I it will be seen that the following districts report more than a normal crop:—

Saran 133 per cent., Darbhanga 126 per cent., Muzaffarpur 125 per cent., Champaran 123 per cent., Bhagalpur 114 per cent, Sonthal Parganas and Manbhum 113 per cent. each, Hazaribagh 106 per cent., Birbhum 103 per cent. and Patna 102 per cent. Gaya, Purnea, Sambalpur, Ranchi and Palamau report a normal crop. Seven districts report crops between 90 and 99 per cent., and six districts between 83 and 85 per cent. Hooghly and the 24-Parganas each report 72 per cent. crops. In the remaining three districts the outturn of the crop is reported as follows:—

Howrah 65 per cent., Singhbhum 64 per cent. and Balasore 60 per cent.

According to the estimates of the District Officers the total outturn of the crop for the Province as a whole works out to 98 per cent. of the normal, against 95 per cent. estimated by them in the second forecast. I see no reason, however, to alter the opinion previously expressed that the outturn will not fall short of the normal.

Accepting 100 per cent. as the Provincial outturn, the gross yield of the cleaned winter rice crop for the Province is estimated at 215,503,000 cwts., against 258,550,800 cwts. of last year.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

CORPORATION OF CALCUTTA.

NOTICE.

CLAUSE 10 of the Bye-laws under section 559 (51) of the Calcutta Municipal Act prescribing the conditions under which persons are permitted to drive registered carts, which were sanctioned by the Local Government in 1905 and are at present in force, reads as follows:—

"Every driver shall carry with him, when plying for hire, the cart license for the then current half-year or when the driver or person in charge of a cart is not its proprietor he shall carry with him a copy of the said license, under the signature of the proprietor, and produce it for inspection whenever required to do so by any Municipal or Police Officer or the hirer of the cart."

It has been represented by some cart-owners that it is inconvenient for the drivers to carry the licenses with them as they would soon be torn or lost. In view of the fact that at the time of registration the license number is branded on the cart and a metal ticket is also given the General Committee are of opinion that the condition as to the production of the license may be dispensed with. They accordingly propose to recommend that clause 10 of the bye-laws be repealed.

Notice of the proposal is given for information in compliance with section 565 of the Calcutta Municipal Act. Objections, if any, will be received up to Monday, the 1st April 1912, and may be addressed to the undersigned.

BRITISH POSSESSIONS.

Caution when approaching British Ports.

No. 60 (second publication).—The following particulars, etc., relative to the above, issued by the British Admiralty (No. 1 of 1912), are republished :—

PART I.

Closing of Ports.

(1) My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having taken into consideration the fact that local or other circumstances may arise in which it may be necessary, on account of periodical exercises, manœuvres, or otherwise, to forbid all entrance to certain ports of the Empire, this is to give Notice that on approaching the shores of the United Kingdom, or any of the ports or localities of the British Empire, referred to in Part III of this Notice, a sharp look-out should be kept for the signals described in the following paragraph, and for the vessels mentioned in paragraph (2), Part II, of this Notice, and the distinguishing and other signals made by them. In the event of such signals being displayed, the port or locality should be approached with great caution, as it may be apprehended that obstructions may exist.

(2) If entrance to a port is prohibited, three red vertical lights by night, or three red vertical balls by day, will be exhibited in some conspicuous position, in or near to its approach, which signals will also be shown by the vessels indicated in paragraph (2), Part II, of this Notice.

If these signals are displayed, vessels must either proceed to the position marked "Examination Anchorage" on the Admiralty charts and anchor there or keep the sea.

(3) At all the ports or localities at home or abroad referred to in Part III of this Notice, search-lights are occasionally exhibited for exercise.

Instructions have been given to avoid directing moveable search-lights during practice on to vessels under way, but mariners are warned that great care should be taken to keep a sharp look-out for the signals indicated in paragraph (2) above, when search-lights are observed to be working.

PART II.

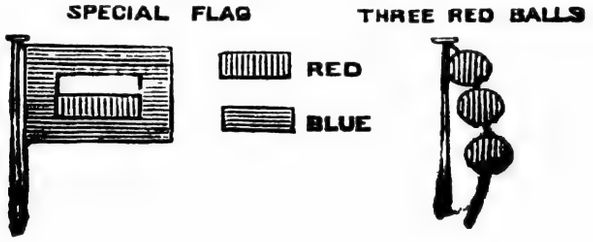
Examination Service.

(1) Under certain circumstances it may become necessary to take special measures to examine vessels desiring to enter the ports or localities at home or abroad, referred to in Part III of this Notice.

(2) In such case, vessels carrying the distinguishing flags or lights mentioned in paragraph (4) will be charged with the duty of examining ships which desire to enter the ports and of allotting positions in which they shall anchor.

(3) As the institution of the Examination Service at any port will never be publicly advertised, especial care should be taken in approaching the ports, by day or night, to keep a sharp look-out for any vessel carrying the flags or lights mentioned in paragraph (4), and to be ready to "bring to" at once when hailed by her or warned by the firing of a gun or sound rocket.

(4) By day the distinguishing flags of the Examination Steamer will be a special flag (white and red horizontal surrounded by a blue border) and a blue ensign.
Also, three red vertical balls if the port is closed.



By night the steamer will carry—

(a) Three red vertical lights if the port is closed.
(b) Three white vertical lights if the port is open.

The above lights will be carried in addition to the ordinary navigation lights, and will show an unbroken light around the horizon.

(5) Masters are warned that, before attempting to enter any of these ports when the Examination Service is in force, they must in their own interests strictly obey all instructions as to entry given to them by the Examination Steamer. In the absence of any instructions from the Examination Steamer they must proceed to the position marked "Examination Anchorage" on the Admiralty Charts and anchor there, or keep the sea.

(6) In case of fog, Masters of vessels are enjoined to use the utmost care, and the Examination Anchorage itself should be approached with caution.

(7) The pilots attached to the ports will be acquainted with the regulations to be followed.

ADMIRALTY PUBLICATIONS.

True* bearings to be introduced.

No. 61 (second publication).—The following particulars, etc., relative to the above, issued by the British Admiralty (No. 2 of 1912), are republished:—

Notice is hereby given that, on and after the date of this Notice, TRUE bearings will be introduced as soon as practicable in all Admiralty Publications.

Details of the new system are as follows:—

(a) On charts:

A new pattern compass is already being gradually introduced which enables True Bearings to be laid off on the chart in addition to Magnetic Bearings as at present. (See diagram overleaf.)

The compass consists of two graduated circles, clearly separated from each other.

The outer circle is a True compass, graduated from 0° (True North) to 360°, measured clockwise.

The inner circle is a Magnetic compass, graduated in points and in degrees from 0° to 90° as heretofore.

The bearings of leading and clearing marks, etc., will be given both True and Magnetic, and a note to this effect will be placed in the title of the charts. (See overleaf.)

Example.—The bearing S. 40° W. true, with a Variation of 12° Easterly, will be shown thus: 220° (S. 28° W. Mag.)

(b) In Sailing Directions:

Bearings will be given as True only, in degrees from 0° (North) to 360°, measured clockwise; and a note to this effect will be given in the Title-page, in the Advertisement, and in the page immediately preceding page 1 of all volumes of Sailing Directions. The variation will continue to be given on each page as at present, so that Magnetic bearings may be obtained when required.

This alteration will be introduced gradually.

(c) In Notices to Mariners:

All bearings will be given both True and Magnetic in a similar manner to that adopted on charts, the necessary alteration having been now made in the heading of the Notices.

(d) Lists of Lights:

Bearings will be given as True only, in degrees from 0° (North) to 360°, measured clockwise.

On each page of the Lists of Lights in which this alteration has been carried out, a footnote will be placed stating that all bearings are TRUE FROM SEAWARD.

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Financial Department.

I AM directed to submit the following report on the state of the salt market for the third quarter of the year 1911-12, comprising the months of October, November and December 1911.

THE HON'BLE MR. D. J. MACPHERSON, C.I.E., I.C.S.

2. The quantity of salt of every description cleared during the quarter amounted to 3,335,384 maunds (including 1,415,033 maunds issued under the credit system), as compared with 2,886,778 maunds (including 1,193,599 maunds issued under the credit system) in the previous quarter, and 2,944,191 maunds (including 1,007,738 maunds issued under the credit system) in the corresponding quarter of the previous year. 3. The subjoined Table I shows in detail the importations into the port of Calcutta and the total clearances of sea-imported salt during the quarter, as compared with the figures of the corresponding quarters of the two previous years :—

* Inclusive of 1,415,033 maunds of salt issued under the credit system. Besides this quantity, 15,048 maunds of salt were issued under the credit system to inland bonded warehouses in the Province of Eastern Bengal and Assam.

Compared with the corresponding quarter of the previous year and the same quarter of 1909-10, importations were greater by 20·4 per cent. and 21·2 per cent., respectively, and clearances were greater by 13·4 and 23·8 per cent. As compared with the corresponding period of the previous year, the increased imports from Spain, the United Kingdom, Aden and Bombay and the decreased imports from Port Said and Hamburg and Bremen are specially noticeable. The large increase in clearances is mainly due to the sudden fall in the prices of salt in the middle of December 1911, referred to in paragraph 9 of this report, in consequence of which dealers made large speculative purchases in addition to ordinary requirements.

4. Table II shows the quantity of sea-imported salt remaining in the warehouses at the close of the quarter, as compared with the preceding four quarters:—

TABLE II.

5. The figures showing the despatches of salt from Calcutta by different routes during the quarter under report will be published as usual in the Calcutta Gazette by the Director-General of Commercial Intelligence when they are available.

6. The quantity of salt despatched during the quarter by the East Indian Railway to stations beyond Buxar amounted to 883 maunds, as against 2,650 maunds in the previous quarter and 1,158 maunds in the corresponding quarter of the previous year.

7. The quantity of saltpetre salt excised in the refineries of Bengal during the quarter amounted to 1,418 maunds (inclusive of 60 maunds of sitta), as compared with 3,491 maunds (inclusive of 320 maunds of sitta) in the previous quarter, and 1,079 maunds in the corresponding quarter of the previous year.

8. The shipments of Liverpool salt during the quarter for the port of Calcutta according to the published market reports amounted to 36,878 tons. It is reported that the vessels named in the margin are on the sea bound for Calcutta with cargoes of salt from Bremen The quantity given against each ship is approximate only.

During the quarter the prices of Bombay karkuch fell gradually, while there was a slump in those of all other descriptions of salt in the last fortnight of the quarter. This sudden fall is attributed to the importation of a consignment of Aden salt, the owners of which are not among the firms who had combined to fix the price of salt. Rates have consequently been greatly lowered by the combine against the new comer. There were no imports of Madras salt into the port of Calcutta during the quarter.

10. The quantities of sea-imported salt admitted into and cleared from bond at the inland warehousing station of Chandbali in the district of Balasore, during the quarter and the corresponding quarter of the previous year, are given below :—

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

FOURTH REPORT ON THE COTTON CROPS OF BENGAL, 1911-12.

[On an average of the five years ending 1909-10, the area under the cotton crop in the territory to which this forecast relates represents about 0·3 per cent. of the total area under cotton in India.]

Explanatory.—This is the final report on the cotton crops of Bengal for the year 1911-12. It deals with the revised estimates of the area and outturn of the crops since the issue of the third report in December.

Character of the season.—The early crop is most important in Ranchi, where it covers about half the total area under the crop in the Province. The less important districts are the Sonthal Parganas, Angul, Manbhum, and Singhbhum. Weather conditions were favourable for the early crop. The late crop is most important in Saran where prospects are reported to be good. In parts of Darbhanga and Cuttack, however, the crop has been affected somewhat by excessive rain in the former and want of timely rain in the latter. The season was on the whole favourable for the cotton crops.

Area sown.—The area sown with the early variety is estimated at 59,962 acres against 34,614 acres last year, and that sown with the late variety is reported at 32,092 acres against 23,388 acres estimated last year.

Outturn.—The estimated outturn of early cotton amounts to 11,281 bales and that of late cotton to 9,460 bales. Last year's estimates were 7,288 and 10,426 bales, respectively.

Adding to this year's estimates 5 per cent. for the cotton crop grown in the Native States for which no statistics are recorded, the total early and late crop is estimated at 11,845 and 9,933 bales, respectively. The total outturn of the cotton crops (both early and late) for the Province as a whole works out to 21,778 bales against 18,600 bales last year.
